PART III—CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

9. Probations of members of service.—Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall on appointment to any post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years.

EXPLANATION

(i) Approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation but no member, who is officiating in any appointment, shall on the completion of the probationary period prescribed, be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is in the opinion of the appointing authority specified in rule 4, not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or may revert him to his former post if he has been appointed to the post, otherwise than by direct appointment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation of any members the appointing authority specified in rule 4 may on recommendation of the Departmental Promotion Committee confirm such member in his appointment or if his work or conduct has in the opinion of the appointing authority not been satisfactory, may dispense with his services, or may revert him to his former post, if he has been appointed otherwise than by direct appointment, or may extend the period of probation, and on expiry of the extended period of probation and thereafter may pass such orders on the expiry of the probation as it could have passed, on the expiry of the first period of probation.

(iv) Provided further that the period of probation should not be extended for more than a year and no employee should be kept on probation for more than double the normal period.

(v) Substantive appointments in the service which have been made provisionally in vacancies caused by the absence of Government servants whose lien has been suspended under F.R. 14, will, as vacancies occur among substantive members of the service or as suspended liens are finally withdrawn cease to be provisional by strict seniority. On the return of an official whose lien has been suspended, the junior member of the service or grade whose substantive appointment is provisional, will revert.

10. Seniority of members of the service.—(1) Subject to the provision of sub-para (2) below persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade in the service prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall en bloc be senior to all others in that grade.

Explanation—(a) For the purpose of these rules persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules; and

(b) Persons appointed on probation to permanent post in the service substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules, shall be considered to be permanent officers of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provision of sub-para (3) below permanent officials of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct recruits.—Notwithstanding the provision of sub-para (2) above, the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on the recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee, persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to these appointed as a result of subsequent selection:

Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(4) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of persons promoted to the various grades in the service shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

✓(ii) Where promotions to a higher grade in the service are made from more than one grade the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from the different lists in a consolidated order of merit which will determine the seniority of persons of promotion to the higher grade.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quota of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively in these rules.

(6) Transferees.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the Department from the Central Government or the State Government or other departments of the Government shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Sub-rule 4 (i) of rule 10.—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee, the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee. Where promotions are made on the basis of seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered as unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior such person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior persons who had superseded him.

Sub-rule (5) of rule 10.—A roster shall be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in these rules. Appointment should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

11. Scales of pay etc. of members of the service.—The grades of pay of each class of service are as mentioned in Appendix 'A' to these rules.

12. Posts involving assumption of duties or responsibilities of greater importance.—For the purpose of Fundamental Rule 30, the appointment to the following posts of a member of the lower grade involve assumption of duties and responsibilities of greater importance:

1. District Public Relations Officer.

4. Stenographer.

PART III—CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

9. Probations of Members of the service.—(i) Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall, on appointment to any post in the service, remain on probation for a period of two years.

EXPLANATION

Approved officiating service shall be taken as a period spent on probation but no member, who is officiating in any appointment, shall on the completion of the probationary period, prescribed, be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during his period of probation is in the opinion of the appointing authority specified in rule 4, not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or may revert him to his former post, if he has been appointed to the post, otherwise, than by direct recruitment.

(iii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority specified in rule 4, may on the recommendation of the Departmental Promotion Committee confirm such member in his appointment or if his work or conduct has in the opinion of the appointing authority not been satisfactory, may dispense with his services or may revert him to his former post, if he has been appointed otherwise than by direct appointment, or may extend the period of probation and on expiry of the extended period of probation and thereafter may pass such orders on the expiry of probation as it could have passed on the expiry on the first period of probation. Provided that the period of probation should not be extended for more than a year and no employee should be kept on probation for more than double the normal period.

(iv) Substantive appointments in the service which have been made provisionally in vacancies caused by the absence of Government servants whose lien has been suspended under F.R. 14 will, as vacancies occur among substantive members of the service or as suspended liens are finally withdrawn cease to be provisional by strict seniority. On the return of an official whose lien has been suspended, the junior member of the service or grade whose substantive appointment is provisional, will revert.

10. Seniority of the members of the service.—(1) Subject to the provision of sub-para (2) below persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade in the service prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall enbloc be senior to all others in that grade.

Explanation.—(a) for the purpose of these rules persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules; and

(b) Persons appointed on probation to permanent posts in the service substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules, shall be considered to be permanent officers of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provision of sub-para (3) below permanent officials of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct Recruits.—Notwithstanding the provision of sub-para (2) above the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on the recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee, persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selection:

Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(4) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of the persons promoted to the various grades in the service shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to higher grade in the service are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from the different lists in a consolidated order of merit which will determine the seniority of persons on promotion to the higher grade.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and promotees.—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quota of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively in these rules.

(6) Transferees.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the Department from the Central Government or a State Government or other Departments of the Government, shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Sub-rule (4) (i) of Rule No. 10.—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee, the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee. Where promotions are made on the basis of seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior person shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior person who had superseded him.

Sub-Rule 5 of Rule No. 10.—A roster shall be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in these rules. Appointment should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75% of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25% for direct recruitment, each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below three promotees, where the quotas are 50% each, every direct recruit shall be ranked below a promotee. If for any reason, a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be re-arranged merely for the purpose of insuring the preparation referred to above.

11. Posts involving assumption of duties of responsibilities of greater importance.—For the purpose of Fundamental Rule 30, the appointment to the following posts of a member of the lower grade involve assumption of duties and responsibilities of greater importance.

1. Head assistant.
2. Assistant in charge.
3. Senior internal auditor.
4. Assistants.
5. Accountant-cum-storekeeper.
6. Stenographers.

12. Liability to transfer.—Any member may be transferred by the competent authority to any other section or station within or outside Himachal Pradesh: provided that except as a part of sentence of reduction he shall not be transferred to a post carrying less pay.

13. Other conditions.—In respect of conditions of service other than those covered by these rules members of the service shall be governed by the conditions of service of the Union Territories Employees Rules, 1959 made by the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs vide notification No. 27/29-Him (ii), dated July 13, 1959.

14. Powers to relax Rules.—Where the Government is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules causes undue hardship in any particular case. It may by order dispense with or relax the requirements of that rule to such extent, and subject to such condition, as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner.
